Ngviahao

Hello,

My name is Vi Hao, my major is Graphic Design. This is a first class of computer software. I find it very interesting but I have a lot of internet problems. Finally that's all of my work.

I got the idea from a burnt forest, but the main cause of the fire was a death god who wanted to destroy humanity.

I reused the image of the man in the previous post and described his act of continuing to find children when he accidentally met the angel of death and ended his life.
