Joe Author

Author Biography

Joe Author was born in Portland, Maine in 1947, the second son of Donald and Nellie Ruth Pillsbury Author. He made his first professional short story sale in 1967 to Startling Mystery Stories. In the fall of 1971, he began teaching high school English classes at Hampden Academy, the public high school in Hampden, Maine. Writing in the evenings and on the weekends, he continued to produce short stories and to work on novels. In the spring of 1973, Doubleday & Co., accepted the novel Carrie for publication, providing him the means to leave teaching and write full-time. He has since published over 50 books and has become one of the world's most successful writers. Author is the recipient of the 2003 National Book Foundation Medal for Distinguished Contribution to the American Letters and the 2014 National Medal of Arts.

Joe lives in Maine and Florida with his wife, novelist Tabitha Author. They are regular contributors to a number of charities including many libraries and have been honored locally for their philanthropic activities.

Joe Author has just released his new amazing book "Captain Zooey and the Kablooey Cazooey." It is an exciting coming-of-age story with strong elements of romance, adventure and intrigue.

Buy the new book on Amazon, Google Books or where ever fine books are sold.

Buy Now

© Joe Author

Subscribe to our newsletter and be the first to learn about new books, events and merchandise.

Subscribe